11. (C) In a meeting with the Ambassador on September 14 to discuss the GOK's hurricane Katrina assistance offer (ref B), MFA's Acting Under-Secretary Khaled Al-Babtain took the opportunity to reiterate the GOK's interest in establishing a "Joint Commission" with the United States to formalize bilateral discussions on the full spectrum of U.S./Kuwait economic and political relations. The Ambassador expressed support for the idea in principle, but cautioned about the sustainability of formal senior-level dialogues, urging that key GOK ministers not wait for formal invitations and visit the U.S. on a regular basis to maintain dialogue on bilateral issues. Al-Babtain noted that while the GOK had no specific model in mind, it considered the Joint Commission to be an important mechanism for sustaining dialogue, follow-up and review on key bilateral areas of cooperation.

12. (C) The Ambassador reminded Al-Babtain of the Kuwaiti Ambassador's July 29 meeting with NEA DAS Gordon Gray (reftel A) during which Amb. Salim agreed to provide a paper to flesh out the Kuwaiti proposal and give us something concrete to which to respond. Al-Babtain agreed that the GOK would provide a paper.
